Her son just graduated from School #5. After six years and three principals, she feels they finally have stability. If the rumors are true, she asked that the Board please keep the children in mind.

Toni Young

She's an advocate for faculty, staff and students alike.

Kayla Kluse

Danielle Barney

Comments from Board Members:

Ms. Guillaume commented on the high school graduation. It has always been a dream of hers to become a board member and to be able to sit on the stage and look out at the graduating class. It was a phenomenal experience and she was honored to be there.

Mrs. Welsh feels that it is quite awesome that 83% of our graduating students will be attending colleges/universities in the Fall. It says a lot about our school district and our teachers.

Dr. Robertozzi mentioned that the State Commissioner of Education was invited to over 60 graduation commencements. One of the ones he accepted was Linden.
